Hanna Orenstein

PROVIDENCE — Hanna Orenstein, 93, of 149 University Ave., died Thursday at Rhode Island Hospital. She was the widow of harry Orenstein.

Born in Germany, a daughter of the late Louis and Ella (Herzman) Meister, she had lived in Providence for 65 years.

She was active in Jewish education including the New England Academy of Torah, the Providence Hebrew Day School and Telse Yeshiva. She was a member of the Providence Chapter of Hadassah.

She leaves a sister, Cecile Furcone of Plantations, Fla. She was a sister of the late Juan Meister.

A graveside service was held yesterday at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

PJ-B 11-24-90

ORENSTEIN, Hanna (Meister)

November 22, 1990. Beloved wife of the late Harry Orenstein. Dear sister of Cecile Furcone of Plantations, FL, and the late Juan Meister. Loving aunt of Louis Meister, John Meister, George Meister, Ronald Zederichas, Joyce Daley, Eva Langton and Alice Moser. Funeral services were held Friday at 11 a.m. Graveside at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to the New England Academy of Torah, 262 Blackstone Blvd., Providence, RI 02906. Shiva will be private. Arrangements by the SUGARMAN-SMITH MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St., corner of Doyle.

Maurice

ORENSTEIN, HANNA