ORLECK, Henry

Henry Orleck

CRANSTON — Henry Orleck, 69, of 118 Chandler Ave., a salesman for the Broadway Tire Co., Pawtucket, for the past 30 years, died Thursday at home. He was the husband of Ruth (Walsh) Orleck.

Born in Providence, a son of the late David H. and Ida (Silver) Orleck, he lived in Cranston since 1959.

Mr. Orleck was an Army veteran of World War II and the Korean War. He was a member of the Jewish War Veterans of America.

Besides his wife he leaves a sister, Beatrice Friedman of Warwick.

A graveside service was held yesterday at Sharon Memorial Park, Sharon, Mass.

PJ-B 6-22 1992

ORLECK, Henery

June 18 1992. Beloved husband of Ruth (Walsh) Orleck. Residence 118 Chandler Ave., Cranston. Dear Brother of Beatrice Friedman, Warwick. Dear uncle of numerous nieces and nephews. Private grave side funeral service took place Sunday at Sharon Memorial Park, Sharon, MA. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to VNA HOSPICE. Memorial observance at his late residence Monday -Wednesday 7-8pm. Arrangements by MOUNT SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL.