2-28-86

THE EVENING BULLETIN

OBITUARIES

Dr. Morris L. Ostrach

PAWTUCKET — Dr. Morris L. Ostrach, D.M.D., 64, of 151 Oak Hill Ave., who practiced for 36 years in Providence and who was a yachtsman and fisherman, died today at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Marion (Markman) Ostrach.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Samuel and Bella (Zaidman) Ostrach. A former Providence resident, he lived in Pawtucket for the last 29 years.

Dr. Ostrach was a graduate of the University of Rhode Island and Tufts Dental School, Class of 1946. His office was at 189 Waterman St., Providence, for the last 19 years and previously at Churchill House for 17 years. He was past president of the Providence Dental Association and a member of the American Dental Association.

A locally well-known yachtsman and a fisherman, Dr. Ostrach won the Black Island Bill Fish Tournament last August. He was a Coast Guard veteran of World War II.

He was a member of Temple Beth-El, Providence, and past master of Roosevelt Lodge F&AM. Dr. Ostrach also was a member of the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island and the Jewish Home for the Aged, Providence.

Besides his wife, he leaves a daughter, Laurel J. Ostrach of New York City; two sons, Stephen S. Ostrach of Boston and Michael Ostrach of Berkeley, Calif.; two sisters, Esther Feder of Warwick and Sarah Portnoy of Woodmere, Long Island; two brothers, Harry Ostrach of Providence and Dr. Simon Ostrach of Cleveland, Ohio, and two grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held Sunday at 1 p.m. at Temple Beth-El, Providence. Burial will be in Congregation Sons of Israel and David Cemetery.

OSTRACH, MORRIS L.