PABIAN, RUTH

PJB 4-11-04

RUTH PABIAN, 88, of Butler Avenue, died yesterday at EPOCH on Blackstone Boulevard.

She was the wife of the late Harvey Pabian. Born in Passaic, N.J., she had lived in Providence since 1951.

Mrs. Pabian was a longtime member of Temple Emanuel, and the Pawtucket chapter of Hadassah.

An avid knitter, she enjoyed making sweaters and blankets.

She leaves a daughter, Lois Swerdlick of Waltham, Mass.; two sons, Allan Pabian of Irvine, Calif., and Jay Pabian of Sharon, Mass.; and eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

A graveside service will be held today at noon in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

4-11

PABIAN, Ruth (Cohen)

April 10, 2004. Beloved Wife of the late Harvey. Devoted Mother of Lois and Edward Swerdlick of Waltham, Allan and Linda Pabian of Irvine, CA and Jay and Audrey Pabian of Sharon. Sister of the late Mary Handler, Cele Berr and David Cohen. Cherished Grandmother of Marc and Katy, Jeffrey and Caren, Jodi and Peter, Brian and Ilene, Wendy, Keith, Jennifer and Lindy and proud Great Grandmother of four. Graveside Services at Lincoln Memorial Park, Warwick, RI on Sunday, April 11 at 12 Noon. For the convenience of the Friends of the children, the family will be receiving Monday and Tuesday evening at the home of Jay and Audrey Pabian and Tuesday from 2-4 and 7-9 PM at the Swerdlick residence. Donations in her memory may be made to the Jewish National Fund, American Cancer Society, or to a charity of your choice.