PALEY, JEWEL

PROVIDENCE

PALEY, JEWEL ROST
passed away peacefully on March 13, three weeks shy of her 96th birthday. She was predeceased by her husband of forty-nine years, Lawrence Paley, in 1991. She is survived by her three daughters and sons-in-law Joan and Jimmy Abramson, Linda and Fred Franklin, and Sandy and Bob Lichtenstein, and her beloved grandchildren Wendy (Bob) Charland, Nancy Abramson, Susan Abramson, Brian (Regan) Franklin, Alison Franklin, David Lichtenstein (Rebecca Silver), and Katy Lichtenstein. She was a special GG to Avigail and Daniel Yerushalmi, Zalman Wuensch, Jack and Ryan Charland, Sammi Franklin, and Jesse and Gillian Lichtenstein.

Jewel was born in Montreal, Canada in 1918. She graduated from Cornell University at the age of twenty in 1938, then spent most of her married life in Providence, where Larry was president of Eddy & Fisher, Inc. After Larry retired in the early seventies, they moved to Florida. Jewel returned to Providence in 2007 to become a resident of Laurelmead. Jewel never stopped learning and kept up with current events, politics, and international affairs, reading the New York Times every day. She was an enthusiastic sports fan, following and rooting for her Red Sox and Celtics. She played tennis and golf into her eighties, loved the theatre and symphony, and was an avid bridge player all her life.

Funeral services will be at 2:00 p.m., Sunday, March 16th, at Temple Beth El, followed by burial at Sharon Memorial Park. There will be a reception at Laurelmead from 4:30-5:30 p.m. Shiva will be observed at Laurelmead on Sunday from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, donations in her memory may be made to Temple Beth El, the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, or the Laurelmead Employee Education Fund.
