Harold N. Pansy

CRANSTON — Harold N. Pansy, 78, of 57 Michael Drive, founder and proprietor of Panbro Sales Co., Providence, suppliers for contractors and construction companies, died yesterday at Kent County Memorial Hospital. He was the husband of Muriel (Cohen) Pansy.

Born in Patterson, N.J., a son of the late Joseph and Mary (Stave) Pansy, he moved to Providence 62 years ago, and also had lived in Pawtucket and, for the last 24 years, in Cranston.

Mr. Pansy was an Army Air Forces veteran of World War II. He was currently commander of the Reback Winsten Jewish War Veterans Post of Rhode Island. He was a member of Temple Sinai and its Brotherhood, and a member of the Jewish Home for the Aged.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, Stephen Pansy of Cranston; and a brother, Gerald Pansy of Fairlawn, N.J.

The funeral will be held Sunday at 11 a.m. at Mt. Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Sinai Memorial Park, Warwick.
