PARNESS, Floyd
5-18-2017

SERVICES

Robert E. Shure Funeral Home
543 George Street
New Haven, CT 06511
(203) 562-8244
WebsiteView Map
Send Flowers

RESOURCES
More Obituaries for FLOYD PARNESS
Looking for an obituary for a different person with this name?

FLOYD PARNESS

Floyd Parness, 66, of Grant Dr., Northford, CT, died suddenly on May 18, 2017. Born in Providence, RI, he was the son of the late Charles & Shirley(Glantz) Parness. Beloved Father of David Parness(Brenda) of Durham, Todd Parness(Paige) of Fairfield, & Jennifer Fleming(Brent) of Wallingford. Dear Brother of Tina Fain(Richard) of Cranston, RI. Cherished Grandfather of Ethan, Madeline, Kayla & Charles. Floyd was a beloved track and cross country coach at North Branford High School. He recently retired from Sikorsky Aircraft after 34 years of dedication and hard work. Floyd was most happy with his children and grandchildren in Rhode Island at the beach. Floyd touched the lives of everyone he came in contact with. His legacy and memories will live on in each of us. Friends and family are invited to attend Funeral Services at Temple Beth Sholom, 1809 Whitney Ave., Hamden on MONDAY morning , May 22nd at 10:00 AM with Interment Services to follow at the In Memoriam Cemetery, 18 Maplewood Avenue, Wallingford. Memorial Contributions may be sent to the "Floyd Parness Scholarship Fund" at 57 Christian St, Wallingford. All are invited for a Period of Mourning at 14 Mauro Drive, Durham immediately following the ceremony. Guests are also welcome from 6:30-8:00; short minyan service 6:45-7:00. All services will be open to the public. Funeral Arrangements in care of Robert E. Shure Funeral Home, New Haven. To sign an on-line registry book or to leave a message of condolence, please visit: www.shurefuneralhome.com
- See more at: http://www.legacy.com/obituaries/nhregister/obituary.aspx?n=floyd-parness&pid=185441980&fhid=4186#sthash.QtqRmxhy.dpuf