Celia A. Parvey

PROVIDENCE — Celia Alice Parvey, 92, of the Jewish Home for the Aged, 99 Hillside Ave., died Sunday at the home. She was the widow of Dr. Harry Parvey.

Born in New York City, she was a daughter of the late Hyman and Anna (Schaeffer) Goldstein.

Mrs. Parvey worked for the Navy Department in procurement and supply at the Quonset Point Naval Air Station before retiring at 75 from federal civil service. She was a member of Pawtuxet Chapter 16, Order of the Eastern Star, the Chopin Club, the Providence Community Concert Association, and was a volunteer at the Lighthouse for the Blind. She was former musical director at Temple Beth-El, a past president of its Sisterhood, choir director at Grace Episcopal Church, and a delegate to the National Federation of Women's Music Clubs.

She leaves a son, Dr. Edgar Parvey of Royal Palm Beach, Fla.; four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

A graveside service will be held today at 2:30 p.m. at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
