PAVLOW, SAMUEL

PJB 12-15-04

SAMUEL PAVLOW, 95, of 8228 Jog Road, Boynton Beach, Fla., and formerly of Cranston, a retired pharmacist, died Sunday at Bethesda Memorial Hospital, Boynton Beach.

He was the husband of the late Ruth (Bochner) Pavlow. Born in Providence, a son of the late Nathan and Mary (Swartz) Pavlow, he had lived in Cranston for more than 50 years before moving to Deerfield Beach, Fla., Boca Raton, Fla., and finally to Boynton Beach, 5 years ago.

He graduated from Classical High School, at the age of 15. He later graduated from the University of Rhode Island School of Pharmacy, and also attended Brown University.

Mr. Pavlow had been the owner and pharmacist at Philips' Pharmacy, in Providence, for many years before retiring 31 years ago.

During World War II, he had worked as a shipbuilder in the former Providence shipyard.

He was a member of the Providence Fraternal Association and B'nai B'rith.

He leaves a daughter, Beverly Hahn of Boynton Beach; two grandchildren, Janet R. Coleman of Wilmington, N.C., and Dr. Steven R. Coleman of White Plains, N.Y.; and a great-granddaughter. He was the brother of the late Harold Pavlow and Sandra Goldberg.

A graveside service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, 1469 Post Rd., Warwick.
