Morris Pearl Dies; Was Cantor Here

Funeral services were held last Thursday afternoon for Morris Pearl, former cantor in synagogues in this city, who died on Wednesday afternoon at the Jewish Home for the Aged, from injuries he received about a month ago in a fall. He was in his 85th year.

Born in Rovna, Russia, Mr. Pearl travelled extensively abroad, before settling in Providence forty years ago. For many years, he had been a cantor at the Sons of Zion and Sons of Jacob Synagogues.

At the time of his admission to the home five years ago, a mistake was made in recording his age, and he was believed to be in his 100th year. However, members of the family this week explained the discrepancy in the figures and said Mr. Pearl was 84 years old.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Morris Goldenberg of this city; 11 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.
