Sheila Marilyn Peisach, 64

PROVIDENCE – Sheila Marilyn Peisach died on March 15. A registered nurse, she was inspired by Florence Nightingale.

After graduating from Beth Israel Hospital, she raised her sons, Adam and Jason Block. She worked in the fields of ophthalmology and medical review; she was also recognized for identifying child abuse through patterns of children's injuries reported during hospital visits. She loved reading and the ocean.

She is survived by her brothers Joel and Jerry Peisach, her sons and her soon-to-be grandson Jacob.

Contributions may be made to the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation or the Sheldrick Wildlife Trust.
