Providence

SANFORD "BABE" PEPPER, 73, of Jerusalem, formerly of Providence, died yesterday at Sheri Tzedek Hospital, Jerusalem.

He was the husband of Vivian (Lipschitz) Pepper. Born in Providence, a son of the late Samuel and Sadie (Godfrey) Pepper, he had lived in Providence for many years before moving to Israel 11 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Pepper were house parents of the boys' dormitory at Hebrew High School for many years before retiring.

Besides his wife, he leaves three sons, Craig Pepper of Monsey, N.Y., Steven Pepper of Jerusalem and James Pepper of Lakewood, N.J.; two daughters, Susan Blatt of Jerusalem and Elizabeth Moffson of Johannesburg, South Africa; a brother, Arnold Pepper of Warwick; a sister, Frances Sadler of Cranston; and 53 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

The funeral and burial took place yesterday in Israel.
