Obituaries

The Providence Sunday Journal, April 24, 1983

Frances Percelay

PERCELAY, FRANCES

PAWTUCKET — Frances Percelay, 85, of Cambria Court died Friday at home. She was the widow of Jacob Percelay.

Born in Russia, she was a daughter of the late Morris and Hannah (Horvitz) Rubinstein, and had resided in Pawtucket most of her life.

Mrs. Percelay was a member of Temple Emanu-El, the Hadassah, the Jewish Home for the Aged, and was involved in various charitable activities.

She leaves two sons, Morris and Merrill Percelay, both of Pawtucket; two daughters, Mrs. Marion Pranikoff of Providence, Territa Percelay of New York City, and nine grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held at 12:30 p.m. today at Mt. Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.