PERLER, Samuel

Warwick

PBJ 4-8-2000

SAMUEL PERLER, 83, of Shalom Drive, a former bakery owner, died yesterday at Rhode Island Hospital, Providence.

He was the husband of Ruth (Kaufman) Perler. Born in Poland, a son of the late Isadore and Anna (Denmark) Perler, he had lived in Cranston and Providence before moving to Warwick 18 years ago.

Mr. Perler had been the co-owner of the former Perler's Bakery in Providence for more than 35 years. After the bakery closed, he was a baker for Rainbow Bakery, Cranston, for many years until he retired.

A founding member of Temple Torat Yisrael, he was a member of its Men's Club. He was a member of the Touro Fraternal Association for more than 50 years.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Sanford Perler of Cranston; a daughter, Helene Freed of Worcester, Mass.; four grandchildren and a great-grandson. He was the brother of the late Jack Perler.

A funeral service will be held today at 10:30 a.m. in Shalom Memorial Chapel, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
