Nathan Perlman

Providence lawyer over 35 years, former GOP state committeeman

MIAMI, Fla. — Nathan Perlman, 81, of 2750 N.E. 183rd Street, a lawyer who practiced in Providence for more than 35 years, died March 9 at home. He was the husband of Irma (Leviss) Perlman.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., he was a son of the late Barnett and Ida (Greenberg) Perlman. He lived in Providence more than 30 years before moving to Fall River, Mass., in 1941, where he lived until his retired in 1966.

Mr. Perlman was a member of the Rhode Island Bar Association for nearly 60 years. He was a past president of the Young Republicans of Rhode Island and a member of the Republican State Central Committee.

Besides his wife, he leaves, a son, Stephen Perlman of Wayland, Mass.; a daughter, Barbara Phillips of Coconut Grove, Fla.; a brother, Rubin Perlman of Providence; two sisters, Jeanette Nelson of Metuchien, N.J., and Bessie Liss of Hallandale, Fla., and a granddaughter.

Burial was in Shalom Memorial Gardens on March 10.

PJ-03-17-92

PERLMAN, Nathan