Obituaries

JEAN (POTACK) PETRUCCI

PAWTUCKET — Jean Petrucci, aged 80, died Thursday, May 14, 1987, at Charlton Memorial Hospital, Fall River, Mass.

Born in Russia, a daughter of the late Benjamin and Minnie Potack, she resided in Pawtucket since 1941, previously living in the New Jersey-New York area.

She had been owner of a stable of race horses from 1941 to 1976 and entered horses in all the race tracks in New England and Florida.

She was a member of the Horseman's Benevolent Protective Association and Golden Ages Club of the Jewish Community Center.

She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Berte Hammer, Philadelphia, Pa.; Mrs. Rose Sklar, Cherry Hill, N.J.; and one brother, Isadore Potack, Huntingdon Valley, Pa.

Funeral services took place at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Roosevelt Memorial Park, Philadelphia, Pa.

PETRUCCI, JEAN