PEARL PHILLIPS, 82, of 860 North Quidnessett Rd., a jewelry buyer, died Saturday at Scalabrini Villa.

She was the wife of the late Julius Phillips. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Harry and Rose Goldstein, she had lived in West Warwick for 12 years before moving to North Kingstown last year.

Mrs. Phillips had been a jewelry buyer, saleswoman, and officer of Gold Lady Jewelers, in Wickford, for 20 years, and had previously been a jewelry buyer at the former Cerel's Jewelers, and a hat buyer at the former Cherry & Webb department store.

She leaves a son, Charles Phillips of Jamestown; a daughter, Elaine Seidman of Cranston; and two granddaughters and a great-granddaughter. She was the sister of the late William, Jack and Joseph Goldstein, Lillian Chorney and Frieda Chase.

The funeral service will be held today at 2 p.m. in Shalom Memorial Chapel, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
