PIERCE, Max

EB 9/13/83

Obituaries

Max Pierce

PROVIDENCE — Max Pierce, 82, of 1345 Lincoln Rd., Miami Beach, Fla., and 50 Randall St., owner of Pierce's Kosher Meat Market, Douglas Avenue, from 1937 to 1958, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Gussie (Parness) Pierce.

Born in Russia, a son of the late Philip and Silvia (Waksler) Pierce, he lived in Providence for more than 60 years.

From 1958, until retiring in 1963, he was a partner in the Peerless Aluminum Co., Scituate. He was a member of Temple Beth David-Beth Am, the Congregation Sons of Jacob, the Providence Hebrew Free Loan, the Jewish Community Center and the Jewish Home for the Aged.

Besides his wife he leaves three sons, Mickey and Bernard Pierce, both of Warwick, and Benton Pierce of Las Vegas; a daughter, Arlene Goldberg of Cranston; two brothers, Isadore Pierce in California and Morris Pierce of Kingston, Ontario; two sisters, Betty Kulesky of Tacoma, Wash., Sally Kander of Windsor, Ontario, and five grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.