OBITUARY

PINCUS, ADELAID

11-18-38

MRS. ADELAIDE PINCUS

11-18-38

Widow of Former Commander of Slocum Post Dead in 85th Year

Mrs. Adelaide (Henius) Pincus, widow of Newman Pincus, Civil War veteran and former commander of Slocum Post, G. A. R., died yesterday at her home, 176 Whitmarsh street. She was 84. Her husband died five years ago.

Mrs. Pincus was born in New York city, but had lived in Providence for 66 years, always in the Elmwood section.

Before her marriage, she was a clerk in the Boston Store, a position she gave up when she married. She and Mr. Pincus celebrated their golden wedding anniversary eight years ago.

She leaves a son, Joel J. Pincus, and a daughter, Miss Mathilda J. Pincus, both of this city.

Also surviving are two grandchildren, Miss Adelaide Irene Pincus and Ira L. Pincus, and a sister, Mrs. Selina Henius, all of this city.

Her funeral will be held tomorrow noon at the chapel in the Temple Beth-El Cemetery, Reservoir avenue, where services will be in charge of Rabbi William G. Braude. Burial will be in the Beth-El Cemetery.

ARTHUR KORNSTEIN

At a time like this don't PASS OVER the chance your family.

Ask yourself these FOUR QUES

CAN I PASS A PHYSICAL EXAMINA

HAVE I PROTECTED MY FAMILY?

HAVE I ENOUGH INSURANCE?

HAVE I THE RIGHT KIND OF INSUR

INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS

ur patronage is respectfully soli

regard to any form of INSU

WRITE OR C

STEIN & SWAR

Arthur Kornstein

70 Main S

OUTLET Com

ND'S LARGEST DEPARTMENT STO

Children 10c

ADMISS

Paralysis Fou

Rhode Islanc

pled Chil

Alien 1

ceeds

OBITUARY

PINCUS, ADELAIDE

11-18-38

MRS. ADELAIDE PINCUS

11-18-38

Widow of Former Commander of Slocum Post Dead in 85th Year

Mrs. Adelaide (Henius) Pincus, widow of Newman Pincus, Civil War veteran and former commander of Slocum Post, G. A. R., died yesterday at her home, 176 Whitmarsh street. She was 84. Her husband died five years ago.

Mrs. Pincus was born in New York city, but had lived in Providence for 66 years, always in the Elmwood section.

Before her marriage, she was a clerk in the Boston Store, a position she gave up when she married. She and Mr. Pincus celebrated their golden wedding anniversary eight years ago.

She leaves a son, Joel J. Pincus, and a daughter, Miss Mathilda J. Pincus, both of this city.

Also surviving are two grandchildren, Miss Adelaide Irene Pincus and Ira L. Pincus, and a sister, Mrs. Selina Henius, all of this city.

Her funeral will be held tomorrow noon at the chapel in the Temple Beth-El Cemetery, Reservoir avenue, where services will be in charge of Rabbi William G. Braude. Burial will be in the Beth-El Cemetery.