"Reckless Living," with Nan Grey and Robert Wilcox, a fast moving comedy of gay youth crammed with laughs, tears, romance and fun, is lana.

Presented by Alter Boyman, local president, Mr. Gurion credited Palestine with "offering the only hope" to world Jewry. He said that the homeland has cared for 50,000 German Jewish exiles in recent years, and urged American Jewry to rally to support World Jewry in its effort to establish a safe homeland in Palestine.

Dr. Israel M. Goldman also addressed the gathering. Several poems were read by Nuchem Yudd, prominent Jewish poet.

OBITUARY

MRS. ADELAIDE PINCUS

Funeral services were held on Tuesday in the chapel of the Temple Beth-El cemetery, for Mrs. Adelaide Pincus, 84, who died on Sunday at her home, 176 Whitmarsh Street. Mrs. Pincus was the widow of Newman Pincus, Civil War Veteran and former commander of Slocum Post, G. A. R.

Born in New York City, Mrs. Pincus had lived in Providence for 66 years, always in the Elmwood section. Surviving her are a son, Joel J. Pincus, and a daughter, Miss Mathilda J. Pincus, both of this city.
