The Providence Sunday Journal, March 27, 1983

Obituaries

Minnie Pincus

PROVIDENCE — Minnie Pincus, 96, of the Wayland Health Center died yesterday at the center. She was the widow of Joel J. Pincus

Born in Boston, she was a daughter of the late Louis and Bella (Slocum) Grishaver, and had resided in Providence since 1918.

She was one of the oldest living members of Temple Beth-El and had been treasurer of the Sisterhood of Temple Beth-El for many years.

Mrs. Pincus leaves a son, Ira L. Pincus of Framingham, Mass., and three grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 10:30 a.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St. Burial will be in Congregation Sons of Israel and David Cemetery.

PINCUS, Minnie