OBITUARIES

J. William Pinkos

PROVIDENCE — J. William Pinkos, 75, of Upton Avenue, affiliated with Elizabeth Webbing Mills in Pawtucket and associated companies for many years, died yesterday at home after an illness. He was the husband of Betty (Barna) Pinkos.

Born in Cambridge, Mass., he was the son of the late Louis and Anna (Holzman) Pinkos. He had lived in Providence many years.

Mr. Pinkos was a 1938 graduate of Harvard University. He was a member of the Harvard Club of Rhode Island and the University Club.

He served as an Army Air Forces officer during World War II.

Mr. Pinkos was a former vice president and honorary life trustee of Temple Beth-El, and was a trustee of the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island. He was a member of the Miriam People at Miriam Hospital, and a volunteer for Meals on Wheels.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, John L. Pinkos of Glocester; a daughter, Ellen Cobb of Newton Highlands, Mass.; a sister, Edith Riemer of Chestnut Hill, Mass., and two grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Ruth Triedman Temkin.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. at Temple Beth-El, 30 Orchard Ave., Providence. Burial will be in Congregation Sons of Israel and David Cemetery, Reservoir Avenue, Providence.
