Mildred Pivnick, 92

WARWICK, R.I. – Mildred "Millie" Pivnick died April 9 at Greenwich Farms. She was the beloved wife of the late Arthur Pivnick. Born in Manchester, New Hampshire, a daughter of the late Abraham and Ida (Young) Factoroff, she had lived in Warwick since 2010, previously living in West Warwick. Millie had several different roles in the Warwick school department, serving as teacher, guidance counselor, and principal.

She was the devoted mother of Heidi Bomengen and her husband, Richard, of Killington, Vermont. She was the dear sister of the late Bertha Mezoff, Allick Factoroff, Henry Factoroff, and Morris Factor. She was the cherished aunt of five nieces.

Contributions in her memory may be made to your favorite charity.
