Providence

MILTON PLINER, 89, of 1800 S. Ocean Blvd. Boca Raton, Fla., former president of the Electric Corp., Rolls-Feed Corp., and the MacGregor Manufacturing Co., and a partner in the Berstein-Pliner Co., died yesterday in Boca Raton Community Hospital. He was the husband of Sonia (Mowshowitz) Pliner. He was the husband of the late Marcia (Herman) Pliner.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Max and Celia (Deutsch) Pliner, he had also lived in West Hyannisport, Mass.

Mr. Pliner was a 1928 graduate of Boston University. After graduation, he opened an accounting practice in Providence with the late Perry Bernstein. During the Great Depression, he became involved as an accountant with the Electrix Corp. in Pawtucket. He also, in partnership with others, formed the Rolls-Feed Corp., and became president. In 1981, in partnership with the late Donald MacGregor, and with his wife, opened the MacGregor Manufacturing Co. He retired in 1984.

He served as treasurer of Temple Beth El in Providence. He spent several years as an adviser at the Service Corps of Retired Executives. He was a member of the Ledgemont Country Club.

Besides his wife, he leaves four daughters, Roberta Pliner of New York, Martha Pliner Grace of Worcester, Mass., Diane Grace Solomon of Wayland, Mass., and Laura Grace Mole of Washington, D.C.; a son, Arthur Grace of Arlington, Va., and three grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Benjamin, Irving and Saul Pliner, and Freda Tokras.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Temple Beth-El, Orchard Avenue. Burial will be in Sons of Israel and David/Temple Beth El Cemetery.
