ROSE PLUSHNER

PROVIDENCE - Rose Plushner, 87, a resident of the Charlesgate Nursing Home, Randall Street, for the past five years, died September 12, 1988, at the home. She was the widow of Philip Plushner.

Born in Austria, a daughter of the late Samuel and Sarah Morganstein, she had lived in Providence since 1940. She previously resided in Brooklyn, N.Y.

She was the recipient of the Morrison and Schiff National Award as "A Mother in Israel" in recognition of her support of Israel through her contributions to the Providence Chapter of Mizrachi. She had also served as a past vice president of the Providence Chapter of Mizrachi and was made an honorary vice president.

Mrs. Plushner was also a member of Pioneer Women and Hadassah.

She leaves two sons, Rubin "Ruby" Plushner of Cranston and Marvin Plushner of North Berwick, Maine; a sister, Clara Berg of New Britain, Conn.; a brother, Harry Morganstein of Syracuse, N.Y.; six grandchildren and a great-granddaughter.

A funeral service was held at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

RI Sun 9/22/88

PLUSHNER, ROSE