Bessie Pollack

PROVIDENCE — Bessie Pollack, 86, of 99 Hillside Ave., a resident of the Jewish Home for the aged, died today at the home. She was the wife of the late Charles Pollack.

Born in Russia, a daughter of the late David and Molly (Goldenberg) Shapiro, she had been a Providence resident for three years. Before moving to Providence she lived in Warwick for many years.

She and her late husband were the owner-operators of Pollack's Delicatessens in Providence and Narragansett from 1932 to 1969.

She was a member of Temple Torat Ysrael.

Mrs. Pollack was also a member of Pioneer Women, the Majestic Senior Guild, and a life member of the Ladies Association of the Jewish Home for the Aged.

She leaves a son, David Pollack, North Merrick, Long Island, N.Y.; two daughters, Phyllis Grebstein, Warwick, Sema Davis, West Warwick; a brother, Grisha Shapiro, USSR, seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

The funeral service will be tomorrow at 12 noon at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope Street, at the corner of Doyle Street. Burial will be in Lincoln Cemetery, Warwick.
