PJB 5-26-05 POLLOCK BRUCE G.

POLLOCK, BRUCE G., 58, of 17 Marco Drive, an attorney, died Wednesday at Rhode Island Hospital. He was the beloved husband of Sheri (Tepper) Pollock. They were married for 35 years.

Born in Providence, a devoted son of Stella (Reitman) Pollock of Warwick and the late Reuben Pollock, he had lived in Cumberland before moving to West Warwick 19 years ago. He was a graduate of Cranston High School East, class of 1964, received his B.A. from the University of RI class of 1968 and his J.D. degree from Suffolk Law School, class of 1974. He was an assistant public defender for the State of Rhode Island for 6 years and has been in private practice for the past 25 years. He was a past president of the RI Bar Association and currently the vice president of the RI Bar Foundation.

He published "The Rhode Island Supreme Court and Law of Crimes" and authored several works in the RI Bar Journal and the Suffolk University Law Review. Mr. Pollock was the youngest Boy Scout in RI to attain Eagle Scout status at age 13. He was a Viet Nam era army veteran serving stateside from 1969 to 1971. He was an avid golfer and enjoyed teaching Sunday School at Temple Beth-El. He was a life member of the Disabled American Veterans and a member of Temple Beth-El.

Adored father of Dawn Pollock Jones of New York City and Meah Rae Pollock, at home. Dear brother of Debra Miller of Warwick. Funeral service Friday at 11:00 A.M. in TEMPLE BETH-EL, 70 Orchard Ave., Providence. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to the American Cancer Society or your favorite charity. Shiva will be observed at his late residence Saturday 7-9, Sunday 2-4 and 7-9 P.M. Arrangements by SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston.