POLLOCK, Paul

RIHER 10-364

PAUL POLLOCK

Funeral services for Paul Pollock, 69, of 9 Callender Street, East Providence, who died on Sept. 23 of a heart attack, were held the following day at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Congregation Sons of Israel and David Cemetery.

Mr. Pollock had been assistant manager of the Seekonk Bowling Lanes for the past six years. A professional violinist who had traveled throughout the country for 35 years, he was a member of the Musicians Union of New York for 50 years. He also was an Army veteran of World War I.

He was born in Providence on July 16, 1895, a son of the late Bernard and Susie (Shapiro) Pollock. His home had been in East Providence for the last 18 months. He had also lived in Pawtucket and Worcester, Mass.

He is survived by his wife, Edna (Hinks) Pollock; two sons, Paul Pollock, Jr., of Glasboro, N.J., and Bernard Pollock, of Arlington, Va.; a brother, David Pollock, of Providence; and two grandchildren.