POMIANSKY, WAYNE

of Acton, Massachusetts passed away peacefully on October 25th at the age of 70. He was the son of Louis and Rose Pomiansky of Providence, RI and West Palm Beach, FL.

He was a devoted father of two cherished daughters, Lauren Weinstein married to Brian Weinstein of Ivoryton, CT, and Lisa Wieland married to Christian Wieland of Louisville, CO, two wonderful grandsons, Bradley James and Lucas Alexander, and two step grandchildren Jessica and Benjamin. He was also devoted to his beloved Adele Chambers Reynolds, and her two daughters Claire and Sara-Grace.

Wayne attended Hope High School in Providence, RI and then went on to graduate from Brown University with a B.A. in English as well as the United States Air Force Officer Training School where he served in the Rhode Island National Guard. Wayne married Christina Ricci of Providence, RI and worked in sales for Uniroyal, Inc. for a number of years, which took his young family to South Bend, IN and Cheshire, CT. He and his family then relocated to Acton, MA where he soon switched careers and spent more time with his girls. He was a successful HR professional and mentor to many in the high tech industry in MA including Digital Equipment Corporation and Verizon until he retired. He will be deeply missed by all who loved him and knew him.

Funeral services will be privately held. Memorial contributions in Wayne's name may be made to either the Brown University Alumni Association at http://www.alumni.brown.edu/ or Hope High Dollars for Scholars at http://www.hopehigh.dollarsforscholars.org To share a memory of Wayne or send a condolence to his family please visit www.rwwfh.com Arrangements by the Robinson, Wright & Weymer Funeral Home in Centerbrook, CT.
