PONCE, Jacob

RIH 10-1-65 Obitu

JACOB PONCE

Funeral services for Jacob Ponce of 99 Hillside Avenue, formerly of Lexington Avenue, Cranston, who died Sept. 23, were held the following day at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

Husband of the late Anna (Golden) Ponce, he was born March 18, 1886, in Russia, a son of the late Joseph and Bella (Gold) Ponce. He was a retired decorator and window dresser, and had lived in Providence for 55 years.

Mr. Ponce was a member of the Providence Fraternal Association, the R. I. Jewish Fraternal organization, United Commercial Travelers No. 67 and the Cranston Jewish Center.

Survivors are a son, Abraham Ponce of Cranston; two daughters, Mrs. Albert Sydney of Cranston and Mrs. Harry Holland of Buffalo, N.Y.; a sister, Mrs. Harriet Rudorman of Boston, six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.