JOURNAL 11-8-63

POTTER, Barney

BARNEY POTTER

Funeral services for Barney Potter, 89, of 154 Camp Street, a retired furniture salesman, who died Nov. 3, were held Tuesday at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

The husband of the late Gertrude (Simes) Potter, he was born in New York City on Dec. 25, 1873, a son of the late Meyer and Rebecca (Meyers) Potter. He had lived in Providence almost all his life.

He is survived by a daughter, Miss Violet Potter of Providence; two sons, Harold Potter of Providence and Ralph Potter of Los Angeles; a brother, Charles Potter of New York City; a granddaughter and two great-grandchildren.