The Evening Bulletin, Wednesday, April 6, 1983

Obituaries

Ben Rabinowitz, 69; businessman, official in many area groups

PROVIDENCE — Ben Rabinowitz, 69, of 1050 Hope St. was stricken at home and died today at the Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Hannah (Chorney) Rabinowitz.

Mr. Rabinowitz was sales manager for Senak Co. for 25 years until 1974, then became excutive director of the Lincoln Park Cemetery,. Warwick, for six years. He retired two years ago.

He was active in Jewish and Masonic organizations.

He was past president and current director of the Touro Fraternal Organization and past president, current director and life member of the Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association.

RABINOWITZ, BEN

He was past president of the Rhode Island Trowel Club and the Chesed Schel Emess Association and past vice president of Temple Beth Sholom. He was a life member of Temple Torat Yisrael and a member of Temple Beth David, Narragansett. He was a current director of the National League of Masonic Clubs and, in 1976, was appointed public relations officer of its clubs. He was appointed chairman of the 1980 convention of the National League of Masonic Clubs.

He was a life member of the Massasoit Gun Club and a member of the Police Revolver and Athletic Club.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late William and Nellie (Figerhaut) Rabinowitz.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a son, Warren Rabinowitz, and a daughter, Mrs. Esta Avedisian, both of Cranston; a brother, Jack Rabinowitz of Clinton, Conn.; a sister, Mrs. Ida Sirota of Malden, Mass., and four grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.