RABINOWITZ
Minna

12+ 14 C42* 1-17-64

MRS. SIDNEY RABINOWITZ

Funeral services for Mrs. Minna (Black) Rabinowitz, 52, of 66 Alton Road, who died unexpectedly on Jan. 9, were held Sunday at Temple Beth El. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

Born in Boston, Sept. 10, 1911, daughter of Mrs. Annie (Goldsmith) Black and the late Samuel Black, she had been a city resident for more than 30 years. She was a graduate of Technical High School, Providence, in 1928 and attended Emerson College in Boston.

Mrs. Rabinowitz was a member of Temple Beth El, Hadassah, Roger Williams Chapter, B'nai B'rith, Brandeis University Women's Organization, Jewish Home for the Aged and Council of Jewish Women.

Survivors besides her mother of Los Angeles, include her husband, Sidney Rabinowitz; a son, Howard J. Rabinowitz of Providence; a daughter, Mrs. William Miller of Barrington; a sister, Mrs. Edward Appell of Los Angeles and three grandchildren.