Jt Trib. 1/28/88

MORRIS REBE

PROVIDENCE — Morris Rebe, 90, of the Charlesgate Nursing Center, 100 Randall Square, owner of the former Rebe's Expert Watch Repair Shop, Empire Street, for 30 years before retiring 15 years ago, died Saturday, January 23, 1988, at the center. He was the husband of the late Ida (Antoszilsky) Rebe.

Born in Lithuania, a son of the late Peretz and Chase (Diamond) Rebe, he lived in Providence for 45 years, having migrated from Cuba.

He leaves a son, Sal Rebe of El Paso, Tex.; a daughter, Dr. Raquel Shapiro of Providence, and four grandchildren.

The funeral procession left from the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., for a service at Sons of Israel and David Cemetery.

RI Herald - 1-28-88

REBE, MORRIS