REGENSTEINER, Alice

ALICE REGENSTEINER, 94, a resident of the Kent Nursing Home in Warwick for the last five years, died there Wednesday evening. She was the wife of the late Ludwig Regensteiner. Born in Augsburg, Germany, she was a daughter of the late Rudolph and Lina Nathan.

She was a resident of Warwick for the last five years. She lived in Providence for three years and in Cranston for more than 30 years. She was a member of the former Temple Beth Israel, and had served as president of its sisterhood. During World War II she was active in the Russian war relief program. After the war, she helped resettle European immigrants in the United States. She was a member of the Hadassah and the Women's Association of the Miriam Hospital.

She is survived by a daughter, Hannah Greenwood of New Rochelle, N.Y.; two sons, F. David Regenstein of Warwick and Max Regensteiner of Silver Spring, Md.,; eight grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Gertrude Bloch-Lehmann and Ernest Nathan.

The funeral procession will depart at 2 p.m. today from Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel at 825 Hope St., Providence, for a 2:45 p.m. graveside service at Sharon Memorial Park in Sharon, Mass.

EB 12-10-1993

REGENSTEINER, Alice (Nathan)

December 8, 1993. Beloved wife of the late Ludwig Regensteiner. Residence, Kent Nursing Home, Warwick, formerly of Providence and Cranston. Dear mother of F. David Regenstein, Warwick; Hannah Greenwood, New Rochelle, NY and Max Regensteiner, Silver Spring, MD, devoted grandmother of 8 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren. Funeral possession will depart 2 p.m. Friday from MOUNT SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 825 Hope at 4th Sts., for the 2:45 p.m. graveside service at Sharon Memorial Park, Sharon, MA. Relatives and friends are invited. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to your favorite charity. Memorial observance to be private.