11-6-71 Obituaries

REKANT, Dr. Allen

DR. ALLEN REKANT

Funeral services for Dr. Allen Rekant, 51, of 40 Fosdyke Street, a Providence dentist, who died November 6 after an illness of six months, were held Sunday at the Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

The husband of Eleanor (Wolfe) Rekant, he was born in Poland, a son of the late Herman and Esta Rekant. He had been a resident of Providence for 35 years.

He was a graduate of Hope High School, Providence College, class of 1941, and the University of Maryland Dental School, class of 1948. He had been a practicing dentist in Providence for 23 years and maintained his office in the Union Trust Building.

He was a Navy veteran of World War II and was the treasurer of the Providence District Dental Society as well as secretary-elect of that organization. He was a member of the Rhode Island Dental Society, the Redwood Lodge, F&AM, and the Jewish War Veterans. He was on the staffs of the Miriam Hospital and St. Joseph's Hospital.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a son, Stuart Rekant, and a daughter, Miss Sharon Rekant, both at home, and a brother, Seymour Rekant of Holmdell, N.J.