The Providence Sunday Journal, March 4, 1984

Obituaries

RENKIN, HARRY B

RENKIN, Harry B.

March 2, 1984. Residence: 90 Greenmeadow Circle, North Kingstown. Beloved husband of Nettie (Albert) Renkin. Devoted father of Dr. Eugene M. Renkin of Davis, Cal.; Herbert L. Renkin, C.L.U., of Atlanta, Ga.; and Mrs. Elaine Berkowitz of Cranston. Loving grandfather of 10 grandchildren. Funeral Services Monday at 10 a.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to your favorite charity. Shiva will be observed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Berkowitz, 57 Russet Way, Cranston: Monday 7-9 p.m.; Tuesday and Wednesday, 2-4 and 7-9.

Harry B. Renkin

NORTH KINGSTOWN — Harry B. Renkin of 90 Greenmeadow Circle, a 30-year Army veteran, died Friday at the Veterans Administration Regional Medical Center. He was the husband of Nettie (Albert) Renkin.

Mr. Renkin served in the First Army Headquarters and was a Dimount marshall for Rhode Island in World War II. He was a veteran of World War II and retired as a master sergeant in 1949 after serving 30 years.

He received a presidential commendation from the late President Harry S. Truman for meritorious service. He was a 55-year member of the Caleb Butler Masonic Lodge in Ayer, Mass., and was a member of the East Greenwich Post, VFW.

Born in New York City, a son of the late Isser and Dora Renkin, he lived in North Kingstown for more than 20 years.

Besides his wife he leaves two sons, Dr. Eugene M. Renkin of Davis, Calif., and Herbert L. Renkin of Atlanta, Ga.; a daughter, Elaine Berkowitz of Cranston, and 10 grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in the Rhode Island Veterans Cemetery, Exeter.