FLORENCE (SICKER) RESNICK, 65, of 5 Suburban Rd., Worcester, Mass., a retired administrative assistant, died yesterday in Hospice Residence, Worcester.

She was the wife of Leon A. Resnick. They had been married for 43 years. Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., a daughter of the late Jacob and Fannie (Azroff) Sicker, she had lived in Providence and Holden, Mass., before moving to Worcester 26 years ago.

Mrs. Resnick had been employed at Clark University as administrative assistant in the communications office, and the psychology and foreign languages departments, and had previously been a secretary and technical assistant at the Heinz Werner Institute. In 1996, she was awarded the Excellence in Service Award for her outstanding service at Clark.

She was a member of Temple Emanuel, and a life member of its Sisterhood, and a past president and life member of the Worcester Chapter of Hadassah.

Besides her husband, she leaves a son, Jeffrey Resnick of New York City, and a daughter, Sharon Resnick, and a grandson, Raymond Resnick, both of Herndon, Va. She was the sister of the late Rose Ehrenberg, Mildred Ackerman and Murray Sicker.
