4-12-83

Obituaries

Jack Resnick

Retired produce, fruit merchant active in Jewish organizations

PROVIDENCE — Jack Resnick, 79, of Charlesgate East, 50 Randall St., died yesterday at the Cherry Hill Nursing Manor, Johnston. he was the husband of the late Shirley (Greene) Resnick.

He was a self-employed fruit and produce merchant for more than 60 years until retiring two years ago.

He was past treasurer of Temple Beth David and a member of its board of directors; past treasurer of Congregation Sons of Jacob and a member of its board; and past president of the Chesed Shel Emes Association and a member of its board.

He was a life member of the board of directors of the Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association, past treasurer and board member of the Waad Hacashruth, past president of the former Hebrew Free Sheltering, past president and treasurer of the Providence Beneficial Association, past president of the former first Odessa Beneficial Association, and a member of the Jewish Home For the Aged, the Miriam Hospital and the board of directors of the Golden Agers of the R.I. Jewish Community Center.

He was born in Russia, a son of the late Samuel and Rose (Weinstein) Resnick. He was a resident of Cranston and Providence for 65 years.

He is survived by two sons, Sydney Resnick of Mechanicsburg, Pa., and Kenneth Resnick of Cranston; five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

RESNICK, JACK