RESNICK, LEON

PJB 12-6-07

RESNICK, LEON, 87 years old, a resident of Providence and former longtime resident of Pawtucket, died Tues., Dec. 4, 2007 at Steere House. He was preceded in death by his wife Shirley Irene (Osofsky) Resnick and his daughter, Francine Debra Resnick Eisenhuth.

Born in Providence, RI, he was the son of the late Benjamin and Esther (Waldman) Resnick. A decorated WWII Naval veteran, he served in the Pacific Theatre. Upon his return from the war he worked in his family's market in Central Falls as a meat cutter; as well as several other markets over the years and prior to his retirement at Risho's Market in Pawtucket. Mr. Resnick was a well liked, helpful and sociable gentleman who often drove people to various appointments and assisted them in doing errands; he had been a member of the Charlesgate 670 Club and also found enjoyment in calling numbers for the bingo games at Charlesgate. He had a warm sense of humor and took great pride in his family.

Mr. Resnick leaves his daughter and son-in-law, Janis and Bill Corsair (McGroarty) of Manhattan. He was the brother of the late Israel 'Larry' and Gilbert Resnick.

A funeral service will be held on Fri., Dec. 7, 2007 at 11:00 AM at SUGARMAN-SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Rd., Warwick. In lieu of flowers contributions may be directed to: Steere House, 100 Borden St., Providence, RI 02903. Shiva will be private.
