REUTER,
TILLIE
(BRODY)

PJB 2-14-04

TILLIE REUTER, 94, of 1085 North Main St., a retired bakery saleswoman, died yesterday at the Summit and Pavilion Rehabilitation Center.

She was the wife of the late Herbert Reuter. Born in Berditchev, Russia, a daughter of the late Louis and Rachel Brody, she had lived in Providence most of her life.

She had been a saleslady at the Rainbow Bakery, Cranston, for 12 years before retiring 14 years ago, and had previously worked at the former Ben's Bakery, Providence.

Mrs. Reuter was a member of Congregation Shaare Zedek Synagogue, and the former Congregation Sons of Abraham Synagogue. She was a life member of Na'Amat, and a member of the Jewish War Veterans Auxiliary.

She was a former member of the Providence Fraternal Association, and a member of the former Jewish Home for the Aged Women's Association.

She was a graduate of the former Point Street School.

She leaves two sons, Gerald L. Reuter of Plattsburgh, N.Y., and Dr. Richard A. Reuter of Barrington; a daughter, Selma L. Weiss of North Hills, N.Y.; and 10 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Israel, Benjamin and Albert Brody, and Duba Nissen.

The funeral service was held yesterday at 3 p.m. in Shalom Memorial Chapel, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. Burial will take place tomorrow in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
