FB 3-15-85

Samuel Richman

WARWICK — Samuel Richman of 48 Deborah Rd. died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Ada (Weisberg) Richman.

Born in Russia, a son of the late Eser and Bessie (Andelman) Richman, he lived in Warwick for 21 years. He previously lived in Providence.

Mr. Richman was a pawnbroker for 50 years, and had founded and operated the Reliable Loan Co., Westminster Street, Providence. He retired nine years ago when he sold the business. He was a member of Temple Beth Am-Beth David and its Men's Club. He was a member of the Jewish Home for the Aged and the Social Seniors of Warwick.

Besides his wife he leaves a daughter, Naomi Richman in Connecticut, and two brothers, Nathan Richman of Brockton, Mass., and Saul Richman of Natick, Mass.

A funeral service was held this noon at Mt. Sinai Memorial Chapel in Providence, with burial in Plymouth Rock Cemetery, Brockton.

RICHMAN, Samuel