RICHMAN, Sidney

10/24/76
Letter of SYMPATHY FROM Pioneer Women

Sidney Richman

WARWICK — Sydney Richman, 76, of Warwick Avenue, husband of Rose L. (Cohen) Richman and a Providence resident most of his life, died yesterday at Wayland Health Center, Providence.

He was self-employed in real estate since 1956. Earlier, he owned Providence Wholesale Candy Co., which he founded in 1936.

He was a member of Temple Beth-Am, a past president of Congregation Lenas Azedeck, a past president and member of the board of directors of Vaad Hakashruth. He was a member of the board of directors of Chesed Schel Emess, and a past president of Chevra Kadisha. He was a member of the board of directors of Providence Hebrew Sheltering and a member of the Providence Fraternal Association, Rhodes Lodge No. 44, F. & A.M., and Palestine Shrine.

Born in Russia, Nov. 15, 1899, he was a son of the late Zalman and Leah (Mayberg) Richman.

Besides his wife, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. Seymour J. Freedman of Cranston; a son, Dr. Justin L. Richman of Newton, Mass.; two brothers, Barney Richman of Warwick and Beryl Richman of Los Angeles, and six grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held today at 1 p.m. at Mt. Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.