RICKLER, Terry

Providence

PJ-B 2-10-1998

TERRY RICKLER, 82, of Blackstone Boulevard, a public school teacher in Buffalo, N.Y., for many years before retiring, died yesterday at home after an illness. She was the wife of the late Arnold H. Rickler.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., a daughter of the late Morris and Ida Wagner, she lived in Buffalo, most of her life before moving to Providence 2½ years ago.

Mrs. Rickler was a graduate of Brooklyn College. She was a former member of Temple Beth Zion in Buffalo, and a life member of Hadassah.

She leaves a son, Kenneth Rickler, M.D., of Providence; a daughter, Phyllis Alexander, of Washington, D.C.; and three grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Sylvia Flax and Dorothy Neiman.

A private graveside funeral service will be held at Forest Lawn Cemetery in Buffalo.
