7-29-2013

RICKLIN, SAUL

BRISTOL

RICKLIN, SAUL, 93, son of Isaac and Rose (Brodozky), husband for 65 years of the predeceased Lois (Webster), brother of Lillian (deceased) and

Joseph (deceased), died on July 29. Saul leaves behind children Donald and wife, Leona; Leslie and husband, Jeff Wells; Ethan and wife, Susan; and Roger and wife, Donna; grandchildren Ruby Wells and husband, Jeff Schneider; Isaac Wells and wife Jamie; Sam, Julia and Alana; and great grandchildren, Zeppelynne and Benjamin.

Graduate of Columbia University with degrees in Chemical Engineering 1939 and 1940. Process Engineer at Metal and Thermit Corporation 1940-1946, where he worked on development of incendiary and tracer ammunition with awards from the Naval Bureau of Ordinance and the OSRD. He served in the Army from 1946-1947. He was a professor at Brown University Chemistry Department 1947-1954 and owner of Ricklin Research Associates (consultant to industry) from 1954-1959. Joined Dixon Corp. 1959 as R&D Director, retired as Chairman and CEO Dixon Industries and as Managing Director of NTN Rulon in Japan and Dixon Italia in 1981.

He was a Director of Entwistle Corp., EFD Company and ACS Industries. He served on the Board