RI Jew Her 6/13/91

ANNA RIOLES

JOHNSTON — Anna Rioles, 90, of the Briarcliffe Nursing Home, Old Pocasset Road, a production worker for 35 years for the former Coro Jewelry Co., and the former Star Jewelry Co. before retiring 40 years ago, died Monday, June 3, 1991, at the home. She was the widow of Antonio Rioles.

Born in Cleveland, Ohio, a daughter of the late Harry and Rose (Dubrovnick) Komisser, she lived in Johnston for 35 years. She previously lived in Providence for 53 years.

She leaves two sons, Louis Rioles of Johnston and Henry Rioles of Warwick; six grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Graveside services were held Wednesday, June 5, at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick, and were coordinated by Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence.

RIOLES, Anna