Harold S. Roberts; a retired co-owner of Roberts Paper

EAST GREENWICH — Harold S. Roberts, 72, of 183 Pine Glen Dr., co-owner of Roberts Paper Co., Lincoln, for 45 years until retiring in 1978, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital, Providence. He was the husband of Frimette (Silverman) Roberts.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Isadore and Dora (Bernstein) Roberts, he had lived in Pawtucket and Warwick before moving to East Greenwich last year.

He was a World War II Army Air Forces veteran and after the war he served in the Air Force Reserve for many years and was appointed to inspect NATO Air Bases in Europe. He retired from the Reserve in 1976 as a Lieutenant Colonel.

Governor Frank Licht appointed him a member of the Emergency Resources Planning Committee.

Mr. Roberts was a former member of the board of trustees of Temple Beth-El and was a past president of its Brotherhood. He was a founder and first president of the Rhode Island Parkinson Support Association, and former chairman of the YMCA Businessmen's Association, Providence.

Besides his wife he leaves two daughters, Linda Forman of Pittsfield, Mass., and Francey Nathan of Warwick; two sons, Michael Roberts of Potomac, Md., and Stanley Roberts of Warwick; a sister, Roslyn Levine of Warwick; a brother, David Roberts of Cranston; and 4 grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held Monday at 1 p.m. at Temple Beth-El, Orchard and Butler Avenues, Providence. Burial will be in Congregation Sons of Israel and David Cemetery, Providence.
