OBITUARY

ROSE, ISSAC

7/28/40

ISAAC ROSE

Funeral serivces were held this week for Isaac Rose, 73, of 514 Blackstone boulevard, a leader in Jewish community affairs and active for many years in the work of charitable and religious organizations, who died on Sunday after a long illness.

Born in Russia, Mr. Rose came to this city in 1863. He was formerly in the clothing business on North Main street, had owned the Star Clothing Company of Central Falls and the Rose Clothing Company of Pawtucket. He was owner of the men's furnishings' section in the old Dimond department store in this city.

Until his retirement last fall, he had been in the real estate business for fourteen years. He was an owner of the Strand Theatre and the National Realty building.

He was an honorary life member of the Masons, Redwood Lodge, an honorary trustee of Temple Beth-El; honorary member of the Board of the Jewish Children's Home; member of the board of the Jewish Home for Aged, and a member of the Ahavath Sholom Synagogue.

Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Susan Finberg Rose; a daughter, Mrs. Thelma R. Shein; three sons, Lester, Harold W. and Jerome B. Rose, and five grandchildren.