PJ-B 5-9-1994

HARRY J. ROSEN, 78, of A-11 Isle of Capri, Delray Beach, Fla., died Saturday at Delray Community Hospital. He was the husband of Estelle (Goldin) Rosen.

Born in Boston, a son of the late Morris and Anna (Roberts) Rosen, he lived in Delray Beach for 10 years. He previously lived in Providence.

Mr. Rosen was a graduate of Boston Latin School, the Hebrew Teachers College in 1936, Harvard University in 1937, the Harvard Graduate School of Education in 1939, and did additional graduate work, and all but a dissertation at Harvard, Dropsie College, Philadelphia, and Assumption College, Worcester.

After serving in the Army during World War II, as a German interpreter in the U.S., he returned to Boston and began his career at the Jewish Vocational Service.

In 1946, he moved to Worcester where he remained for 20 years as director of religious education at Temple Emanuel, and also served at Rockville Centre, N.Y., Tucson, Ariz., and Schenectady, N.Y. Later he worked for the federal government and the State of Rhode Island before retiring in 1982. He was president of the Southeastern New England Chapter of the Council of Reform Jewish Educators. He was instrumental in the founding of the National Association of Temple Educators. He was a Mason and a member of Delray Lodge 171 AF & AF, the Master Masons of Kings Point, Fla., Temple Sinai, Delray Beach, and Temple Beth-El, Providence.

Besides his wife of he leaves two sons, Joel D. Rosen of Langhorne, Pa., and Dr. Daniel Rosen, M.D., of Easton, Conn.; a daughter, Celia Marlowe of Naperville, Ill., and five grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held today at 2 p.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Sons of Israel & David Cemetery, Providence.

ROSEN, Harry J.

ROSEN, Harry J.

May 7, 1994. Residence Delray Beach FL. Formerly of Providence. Beloved husband of Estelle (Goldin) Rosen. Devoted father of Joel D. Rosen of Langhorne PA, Dr. Daniel B. Rosen of Easton CT and Celia Marlowe of Naperville IL. Loving grandfather of Michael, Jonathan, Alison, Loren and Max. Funeral services Monday at 2 p.m. at the MAX SUGARMAN MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St. (corner of Doyle Ave.). In lieu of flowers the family requests memorials to be made to Hebrew College, 43 Hawes St., Brookline MA 02146 or Temple Beth-EL, 70 Orchard Ave., Providence RI 02906. Condolence calls may be made at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Goldin, 51 Harwich Rd., Providence, Monday 7-9 and Tuesday 2-4 and 7-9. From Thursday through Friday calls may be made at his late residence Kings Point, A-11 Isle of Capri, Delray Beach.

JA 5/20-26/1994

Harry J. Rosen

Harry J. Rosen, of Delray Beach, Fla. died on Saturday, May 7 at Delray Community Hospital.

Born in Boston, son of the late Morris and Anna (Roberts) Rosen, he lived in Delray Beach for 10 years. He previously lived in Providence, R.I.

He was a graduate of Boston Latin School, the Hebrew Teachers College in 1936, Harvard University in 1937, the Harvard Graduate School of Education in 1939, and did additional graduate work, and all but a dissertation at Harvard, Dropsie College, Philadelphia, and Assumption College, Worcester.

After serving in the Army during World War II, as a German interpreter in the U.S., he returned to Boston and began his career at the Jewish Vocational Service.

In 1946, he moved to Worcester where he remained for 20 years as director of religious education at Temple Emanuel, and also served at Rockville Center, N.Y., Tucson, Ariz., and Schenectady, N.Y. Later he worked for the federal government and state of Rhode Island before retiring in 1982. He was president of the Southeastern New England Chapter of the Council of Reform Jewish Educators, and was instrumental in the founding of the National Association of Temple Educators. He was a mason and a member of Delray Lodge 171 AF & AF, the Master Masons of Kings Point, Fla., Temple Sinai, Delray Beach, and Temple Beth–El, Providence.

He is survived by his wife, Estelle (Goldin) Rosen; his sons, Joel D. Rosen of Langhorne, Pa., and Dr. Daniel Rosen of Easton, Ct.; his daughter, Celia Marlowe of Naperville, Ill., and five grandchildren.

The funeral was held on Monday, May 9 at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, in Providence, R.I. Burial was in Sons of Israel and David Cemetery in Providence.