HERBERT LEWIS "RUSTY" ROSEN, 86, of Blodgett Avenue, a retired co-owner of the Franklin Supply Co., Providence, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital, Providence.

He was the husband of Barbara (Feital) Rosen. They had been married for 49 years. Born in Providence, a son of the late Max and Ida (Golgos) Rosen, he had lived in Pawtucket for 50 years.

Mr. Rosen was the co-owner with his brother of Franklin Supply, an automotive and industrial supply company, retiring in 1981.

He was active in the John Bartlett Society, and had been a tutor at Martin Luther King Jr. School.

Mr. Rosen was a member of Temple Emanu-El and served on the board of directors of the Rhode Island Jewish Historical Society.

Since 1981, he had been a member of the Brown Community for Learning in Retirement. He was a dedicated reader and learner.

He was a bridge and tennis player.

Mr. Rosen graduated from Classical High School, Providence, in 1935, and Brown University in 1939.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Max Paul Rosen of Chestnut Hill, Mass.; a sister, Annette Rosen Myers in Florida; and a grandson. He was the brother of the late Benton H. Rosen.

The funeral service will be held today at 1 p.m. in Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue at Sessions Street. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

IN MEMORIAM
